Auguster Maul, Sr

Auguster Maul, Sr. was born on February 17, 1932, to Texanna and Leonard Maul, Sr. in Selma, Alabama. He realized his calling when he opened his mouth at the early age of 9 years, and there resounded a beautiful gift of song ministry that only God could have bestowed upon him. After years of singing praises in the church choir at Sandridge Baptist Church, Selma AL, Mr. Maul later learned the art of quartet singing-joining his first quartet, The Triple Trumpets, Selma, AL. From there, he later sang with The Golden Gates and The Friendly Four also of Selma, AL. In 1950, Mr. Maul relocated to Birmingham, AL. He was employed at US Steel for 42 years and in 1955 opened a radio and television repair shop servicing customers for twenty-two years. He joined the Macedonia Baptist Church, Bessemer, AL in 1950. He was ordained as a Deacon in 1957; served as Chairman for several years; and has sung in the choir for more than 50 years. He also served in the local Boy Scouts as a lifeguard and counselor as a positive role model for our youth. He later joined The Ensley Jubilees singers of Birmingham, AL. In 1953 he was drafted into the U.S. Army, but this did not deter his calling to sing God's praises. He was provided the opportunity to continue singing in the Camp Lewis Army Instillation Choir while serving his country. After returning home, in 1955 he joined The Four Eagle Gospel Singers, Bessemer, AL, as lead singer. In 1956, he joined The Delta Aires Gospel Singers, (also locally known as the Gospel Fire Horses).

This was a beautiful beginning of a blessed relationship sustained by the Holy Spirit for more than 62 years of Brothers-in-Christ whose shared desire was to sing God's praises. In 1958, he married Thelma L. Beard Maul, and to this union, five children were born. A family who would later follow in his footsteps praising God through song, locally known as the "Maul Singers".

To inspire and empower communities down through the years, Mr. Maul performs on local programs to assist in raising funds for various non-profit organizations. Mr. Maul has always been very active in his communities. He continued to reach back and assist his Selma community in fund-raising programs for the reconstruction and revitalization of the Sandridge Baptist Church and Cemetery after a destructive fire. In the Lowetown community where he has resided for 46 years, he previously held the position of Trustee Chairman and has presently served as President since 2007. His concern for the community is evident in his relentless pursuit to ensure every need is fulfilled. During his incumbency, community fire hydrants were installed; the community garbage pick-up route was established; and most proudly, the Lowetown Senior Citizen Center and Pavillion was built in 2011 to service the community!

As ongoing awareness and encouragement to the community, he and the Delta Aires have appeared on TV station, WBRC- "Good Day Alabama" on multiple occasions, Mr. Maul is also known for his radio broadcasts, which spanned over several years. His first broadcast while singing with the Golden Gates, Selma, AL, included Wednesday and Sunday broadcasts on WHBB and WGWC. In Birmingham, AL, while singing with The Ensley Jubilees, he broadcast on WEDR; with The Four Eagles, on WVOK, Bessemer, AL; and while singing with the Delta Aires, other radio broadcasts included WBCO/WENN/WAGG/WJLD and WBUL, Birmingham, AL, Although Mr. Maul doesn't currently have a broadcast, his love for God and community propels him to continue to frequent the various radio stations upon request and on special occasions. Mr. Maul's passion and dedication to keep the art of gospel quartet singing alive has provided him the privilege to work with exceptional artists such as Mr. Doug Scroff, an internationally known music historian; Mr. George W. Stewart, writer and promoter of the arts; and Mr. Bob Friedman, Director, Birmingham Black Radio Museum, in the preservation of the history of gospel voices past. Mr. Maul was also instrumental in the collaboration of the "Wade in the Water: African American Sacred Song and Worship Traditions Project" for the Smithsonian Institute and the National Public Radio which was available for national broadcast and non-broadcast distribution in 1993.

During his tenure with The Delta Aires, Mr. Maul recorded songs such as "We are the Delta Aires", "Mother", and "Walk on out in Jesus Name" which was among many other recordings on their last CD, entitled, "The Best of the Delta Aires", released in 2004. The Delta Aires celebrated their last anniversary in November 2018 which marked their 70th year of singing God's praises! Mr. Maul is currently the last surviving member of the Delta Aires Gospel Singers.

At the blessed ripe age of 93 years, Mr. Maul continues to "push toward the mark"! God has blessed him with the strength to assist the community in every way possible. He continues to extend his everencouraging words to everyone he meets, "The only time you should look down on a man is to pick him up!" And maybe, if you are in attendance at any gospel setting, you just might still hear that melodic tenor voice reverberating through the audience to the heavens!
